

Holy Land Tour FAQs

Will COVID-19 cancel the tour?

Precept continues to carefully monitor the situation in the United States and Israel. Safety for our guests, staff, and tour partners are our first priority. In the event that scheduling changes or a cancellation become necessary, registered guests will hear directly from our tour partners, Inspiration Cruises & Tours. We are prayerfully confident that our May 2021 tour will happen as planned, and we look forward to sharing the sights and sounds of the Holy Land with you!

Will it be safe to travel with COVID-19?

We are working closely alongside our travel provider, Inspiration Cruises & Tours, to meet all mandatory guidelines to ensure every traveler's safety. Inspiration is in frequent contact with their vast network of travel service providers—including the airlines, hotels, and motorcoach companies in Israel—to determine the safest and best actions to take.

Is it safe to travel to Israel?

An independent analytics organization recently rated Israel as the No. 1 country on its COVID-19 Safety Ranking. Their country has completely reopened to the Israeli public while maintaining healthy social distancing. Also, Israel was the first to announce a possible vaccine for COVID-19. Inspiration remains in consistent contact with the Israel Ministry of Tourism and their key network providers for frequent travel updates. For specific questions about travel accommodations, contact ICT at 800-247-1899 or emailing info@inspirationcruises.com.

Will COVID-19 affect the quality of the tour?

Inspiration's accumulated expertise from over 35 years of managing Christian travels all over the world has prepared them to handle every contingency. We have full confidence that our time together will not only be safe and worry-free but a truly exceptional travel experience.

Inspiration's staff members have competently worked through the entire pandemic to ensure every detail of our trip stays on schedule as planned. Their meticulous attention to every detail truly sets them apart and is why we are comfortable and confident traveling with them!

Where will we visit on the tour?

The tour travels through Central Coast, Jezreel Valley, Galilee, Golan Heights, Northern Boundary, Lower Jordan River Valley, Jerusalem, The Old City, Judean Wilderness, and Dead Sea Regions. For a full list of sites, visit the itinerary page.

What should I do to prepare for the trip?

There is a lot of walking on the tour, so we recommend starting a walking routine to prepare. You will also need a valid passport. For more general information about traveling with the tour visit Inspiration Cruises and Tours travel FAQ page.

Who should I contact if I need to cancel my registration?

You can contact our tour partner, Inspiration Cruises and Tours by calling 800-247-1899 or emailing info@inspirationcruises.com.
